

JASWANT MODERN SR. SEC. SCHOOL CLASS–VII, HOLIDAY HOMEWORK ENGLISH LITERATURE 2025

Q1. Write down meaning of the following words and convert it into sentences:

1. generous, 2) practical, 3) innovative, 4) curious, 5) liberal, 6) survive, 7) artificial, 8) passive, 9) motivate, 10) strolling, 11) reclining, 12) lamenting, 13) courageous, 14) exemplary, 14) permitted, 15) majestic, 16) succumbed, 17) amicable, 18) annoyed, 19) examine, 20) suggest

Q2: In the poem “The mystery of the talking fan” how does the poet describe the talking fan? What made the fan stop talking? Write your answer in not less than 60 words.

Q3: Write a short paragraph imagining another object in your house (such as chair, clock, or table) could talk. What would it say?

Q4: In the poem “The Dad, the cat and the tree”, describe the dad’s attempts to rescue the cat and explain how the humour is created. Write your response in not less than 80 words.

Q5: What does the child in the poem learn about the garden snake? How does his fear turn into acceptance? (60–80 words)

Q6: Write a character sketch of Nishad or Maya, describing their qualities, role in the story and their curiosity about Mr. Nath. (100–120 words)

Q7: Who was Mr. Wonka? How did he invent Vita-Wonk? Write a short summary of his invention process in at least 100 words.

Q8: What qualities of soldiers are highlighted in the story “A homage to our brave soldiers”. Write about their courage, discipline and sacrifice in not less than 100 words.

Q9: Describe the character of Timothy, the tiger cub. How does he behave as a pet, and what changes as he grows up?

Q10: Describe about the child’s curiosity in the story “An Alien Hand” and how did he react once he visits the control room?

ENGLISH LANGUAGE

Q1. Write a letter to the editor of a leading newspaper about the growing nuisance created by the stray dogs in your colony.

Q2. Write a letter to your friend telling him about the importance of extra-curricular activities in a student’s life.

Q3. Your school is going to observe a Cleanliness Week. Write a notice for the information of the students, highlighting the various aspects. Sign yourself as a Head Boy.

Q4. You are the school captain of your school. Write a notice informing the students about an Inter-House Debate Competition to be held in your school.

Q5. Story writing: Rohan was disappointed. He had worked so hard for so long. Now it seemed to have been a total waste of time... Complete this story, giving it a suitable title which ends with a moral in not less than 150 words.

Q6. Prepare all the exercises of chapters: Tenses, Active and Passive Voice, Conjunctions, Direct and Indirect Speech, Verbs and Pronouns.

WINTER HOLIDAY HOMEWORK